*We ask that all students complete a registration form. There are no fees or costs for the Arvada Great Adventure Bible Study classes other than the cost of the study guide. Students can elect to buy their book online and have it shipped directly to their home; there is no additional cost for the class. Prices shown for on-line purchases do not include taxes or shipping. Students not purchasing a study guide online can pay for their book at time of registration and receive it at their first class session. In this case, the registration fee includes the cost of the study book, taxes and shipping. Prices after the deadline reflect the additional cost of expedited shipping so the study guide arrives in time for the first class.
