God Is Calling You To a Deeper Relationship with Him

A Ten-Part Bible Study

by

Thomas Smith & Sarah Christmyer

If we consider that God is the Divine Bridegroom and the Church is his Bride, then the prophets can be seen as "spiritual marriage counselors." They afflict the comfortable and comfort the afflicted, calling us to return to our covenant relationship with God. They urge us to repentance, warn us of the dangers of sin, and announce the blessings of faithfulness. Their prophetic words speak to us even today, as they draw us closer to our heavenly Bridegroom, and show us how to share him with others.

Everyone is Invited! There are no Prerequisites!
This program is part of the Arvada Great Adventure Bible Study Program. It is an all-volunteer program and a collaborative effort of the three Arvada Parishes. It is open to everyone, including people from Parishes outside Arvada.

*Do you ever feel overwhelmed by the constant challenges of daily life?
Do you struggle to “let go and let God?”*

We all need role models to encourage us through the mess that daily life can become. Joshua was no stranger to this challenge—especially when charged with picking up where Moses left off, and leading the Israelites with prudence and patience.

In the Book of Joshua, through a detailed exegesis of 650+ verses, Steve Ray and Fr. Scott Courtney are committed to showing you how completely Joshua trusted in God. Even while faced with severe setbacks, not once did this prophet doubt that God knew exactly what he was doing.

In 13 intriguing lessons, you will learn:

- How the crossing of the Red Sea prefigures an essential sacrament
- What “typology” means, and how it synthesizes the Old and New Testaments
- That we were slaves, just like the Israelites, until a new Joshua came to sever our chains

Trust and perseverance are the two virtues you will see most powerfully demonstrated in Joshua. Let his example of constant hope encourage you to leave more of your worries in God’s capable hands.
