EVANGELIZATION AND APOLOGETICS FOR ALL

The First Teachers of the Faith: How Parents Can Raise Catholic Saints

In these days in which seemingly everything parents do gets criticized, what's a Catholic mom or dad to do? While many Catholics are unaware of this, the Catholic Church actually has a lot to say about the "dos and don'ts" of parents. This guidance, supported by two thousand years of experience, is counter to much of what the world suggests.

Go and Make Disciples: The Art and Craft of Evangelization and Apologetics

How can I become a better apologist or evangelist? Having spent years answering objections to the Catholic faith online, and in person (including on college campuses), Joe gives a roadmap so that you can be better at (and braver in) sharing your own faith.

Apologetics and Spiritual Warfare: The Hidden Reality

It's easy to think of evangelization and apologetics as something like a political battle. But as Joe (and more importantly, St. Thomas Aquinas and St. Paul) points out, there's more than meets the eye. Here's why that matters, and what we can do about it.
